Student Government

One of the chief aims of the Student Council and Congress is to represent the student body to the faculty. For several years the Council has undertaken many projects. Among these are the adoption of a Korean orphan, the introduction of the Point System to Melrose High, and provision for entertainment for the entire school. Student Congress, a part of the Council, consists of two elected members from each homeroom.

Girls, Girls, Girls

Under the capable leadership of its officers and the guiding hand of Mr. McPheters, the club's founder and advisor, the Girls' Club enjoyed a profitable and active thirty-first year. As in past years, the Welfare Committee did an excellent job in distributing money and food baskets to several needy families in Melrose.

In keeping with the ideals of Girls' Club both serious and relaxing programs were planned for meetings on Monday evenings. These included speakers from the clergymen of various Protestant and Catholic churches, a spring fashion show, Mrs. Godfrey's Talent Scouts, and a spelling bee. In addition, to celebrate the club's thirty-first anniversary, the girls held a covered dish supper.

The Red Raiders

Hackendorf clears the way for Verville

The 1955-1956 football season was devoted to strengthening and building the young M. H. S. eleven for the following year. With Wayne Webber making tackle after tackle and Billy Tryder kicking the all-important extra point, the hard fighting Red Raiders opened the campaign with a 13-12 victory over Cambridge Latin. Although the Raiders did not keep up this fine pace, they showed excellent sportsmanship and spirit in all their remaining games. Other outstanding seniors were: Ed Reinhardt, Bill Solari, Tom Flood, Carl Smith, Bill Stasiowski, Art Anderson, and Bob Jeffery. The team was awarded a berth in the newly-formed Middlesex League that will commence in 1956. Juniors George Lowe and Dick Verville, quarterback and fullback of the 1955-56 team, were elected co-captains for the following season.

New England Hockey Champions

The Raiders of 1955-56 proved themselves to be one of the greatest hockey teams ever to don the red and white of MHS. After clinching the GBI title for the tenth time in Melrose High's history, the Raiders went on to win the biggest prize of all, the New England Hockey Tournament, which was held in Providence, Rhode Island. Melrose's star center, Don MacInnis, who was voted the most outstanding player in the tourney, scored six goals and got seven assists in the three games to break the individual scoring record. With MacInnis scoring four goals, the classy Raiders walloped LaSalle, Rhode Island 9-1 in the opening round. The hard skating, smooth passing Melrose sextet scored six goals in the second game and defeated Hope, Rhode Island 6-2. As Ed Smith scored the two winning goals and Billy Tryder turned in a dazzling performance to earn the award for the best goaltender in the tournament, the rustling Red Raiders clinched the title by defeating St. Dominic's of Maine 4-2. The champions displayed true sportsmanship and fine team spirit throughout the season, helping to make the 1955-56 season a great one for MHS.

Safe ot home!

Cooch Gordon Thorburn hod eight lettermen ond severol members of last year's outstonding J. V. teom to bockbone the 1956 M. H. S. boseboll squod. The teom's potentiol wos shown by their strength down the middle, with power hitting Andy Anderson cotching, veterons George Borrett ond Bob Emery pitching, smooth-fielding Chris Smith ond Bill Tryder for the second bose combinotion, ond speedsters Bob Jeffery ond Bob O'Brien in the outfield. These ployers proved to be the nucleus for o strong contender in the Middlesex Leogue competition.

Out ot first!

Rounding third.

A homer, boses loaded.

A smashing double.

Tennis

Althaugh the caurts were cavered with snaw, the girls' tennis team began practicing in the gym. There were many new girls trying to perfect their strakes, in additian ta returning ployers Gwen Hess, Susan Wallace, Faith Mead, Suson Keith, and Sheila McFadden. Matches were played with Winchester, Lexington, Malden, Swampscatt, Arlingtan, Cancard, Belmant, and Newton.

Gwen Hess proctices o smoshing serve.

Pat Horrington reoches for the boll.

KNEELING: G. Bemiss, H. Appledorf, F. Cox. STANDING: H. Schurgin, D. Bell, K. Perry, J. Fotti.

Melrose High School hos for o number of yeors been a member of the Suburban Tennis League. This year, the Leogue hos been expanded to nine teoms. They ore Belmont, Wotertown, Combridge Lotin, Rindge Tech, Malden, Winthrop, Beverly, ond St. John's Prep. Although lost yeor's teom wos entirely lost through groduotion, newcomers provided o balanced squad.

Donold Bell reody for o rolly.

Kent Perry prepares to serve.

Fobion Cox demonstrates good bockhand form.

Down The Field They Go!

Girls' Varsity Field Hockey—FRONT ROW: V. Jewett, R. Staples, A. Eosson, P. Reed, S. Gorniss, A. Ostrum, P. Shea. BACK ROW: N. Spear, J. Harringtan, V. Hatch, Miss Monnat, B. Tate, D. Manteith, V. Greenwald.

Manning intercepts a pass.

Despite the olmost unceosing roin the girls' field hockey team hod o busy seoson. Neor the end of the season, work wos being done on the field ond the teom hod to resort to procticing on the footboll field.

The teoms included in Melrose's schedule were: Newton, Arlington, Malden, Swompscott, Lexington, Stoneham, and Winchester.

Although the Varsity record was one win, four losses, ond two tie gomes, mony of the losses were by narrow margins.

The lang drive.

Teamwork

Swish!

Under the fine caaching af Miss Mannat, bath the Varsity and the Juniar Varsity pragressed well during the 1955-1956 seasan. Playing a busy schedule were varsity high scorers Nancy Spear, Ginny Greenwald, and Jackie Bennett with their guards Sue Garniss, Marie Fandulis, and Caral Ladd. The Juniar Varsity girls turned in a recard of faur wins and faur lasses.

Toss-up.

Vorsity team—FRONT ROW: V. Greenwold, E. McCorrison, R. Bennett, D. Monteith. BACK ROW: Miss Monnot, M. Fondulis, V. Jewett, C. Ladd, N. Speor, A. Murroy.

Practice mokes perfect.

Junior Vorsity team—FRONT ROW: G. Nelson, J. Ducrow, J. Putney, J. Brennon, J. Ferguson, S. Driscoll. BACK ROW: M. Johnson, J. Alexander, J. Alobiso, A. Frey, P. Conwoy, T. Baxter, B. Tote.

FRONT ROW: V. Greenwald, B. MacEachern, M. Simands, B. Walker, R. Cowoad. BACK ROW: J. Russell, V. Jewett, J. Leavy, A. Stevenson, J. Noble.

Str-r-rike Three!

Great enthusiasm was shawn by the large number af girls who tried aut far the softball team. With games against Lexingtan, Winchester, Malden, Swampscatt, Arlingtan, Concard, and Belmont, the team had a busy season. Seniar team members included Nancy Spear, Ginny Jewett, Andrea Eassan, Ruth Bennett, and Manica Taamey.

Batter up!

Judy Leavy tokes aim.

Diane Monteith sends a ball acrass the plote.
